Mr. Henry Chapman,
No.333 South 16th Street,
Philadelphia.

My Dear Mr. Chapman:
I stand corrected on my error of mentioning Pennies when I should have said Cents and am enclosing under separate cover 16 cents of 1922 which I consider "bright" and nearly enough perfect to be worth the 5c each which you inform me you are paying.

Then there are 5 others which I suppose come under the other head of "worn ones"

So, according to my figures, the coins I am shipping are worth 87½ cents. If this is satisfactory to you, you may consider them yours and send me the amount mentioned above.

Very Sincerely Yours,

Karl J. Schultz
